Submitting an application

To apply for this scholarship, you must:

- Live or attend school within the state of Florida.
- Complete a Scholarship Application Form.
- State your reasons for wishing to pursue a career in your choice field of study.
- Provide details of involvement in professional/community organizations relevant to your development as an individual.
- Be able to demonstrate that you would otherwise find it difficult to pursue full-time on-campus study because of financial constraints. Priority will be given to those with life altering or serious illnesses or living/economic conditions, and/or those who have medical expenses that may pose an ongoing financial drain that may jeopardize one's educational status.
- Please see application for specific information. In general, it is your responsibility to provide as much detail as possible regarding the nature of your financial hardship and applicable expenses. Simply providing a total amount due will not suffice.
